Ever wondered why a slice of pizza makes you happy after the first bite? When your craving is satisfied, your brain releases serotonin, and carbohydrates play a significant role in this process. ## Freedom

"Freedom lies in being bold."

– Robert Frost

This is a traditional yet exciting way of sipping tequila in Mexico during their Independence Day. Be brave. The liberty of enjoying a good tequila is yours.

Nature

A "hytte" is a cabin in the middle of nature with the most scenic surroundings.

For a "hyttetur", getting to the cabin is as important as the time you spend there, and the company even more so.

An orange, coffee and Kvikk Lunsj – the trifecta of a perfect "hyttetur". Caffeinated and boozed, just the way we like our cabin trips.

It is a known fact that taking time off recharges the body, mind and soul. Imagine what a get-away by the beach while sipping your favorite tiki-cocktail can do.
